Personal Bio Summary

My career journey began by working on small-scale e-commerce projects independently. Over the last seven years, I successfully managed two Top Rated eBay stores and created my own e-commerce platform, 35Moving.com, focusing on reselling sneakers and socks. Concurrently, I also served as a keyholder at Bath and Bodyworks, where I supervised employees and supported eleven stores across South Atlanta with their inventory systems. Currently, I am serving as a Deployment Product Specialist at Flock Safety.
